his wine isn't one to keep for too many years but it is a very limited release as we only had one barrique - and the winemaker loves it!

The grapes came from Golden Grove and the rest of the wine went into a very special 'Bordeaux' blend which is yet to be bottled.

The wine was made in a style aiming to evoke memories of good times spent in continental Europe. Decant to an attractive pottery jug, take to a shady spot with a good view, lean back in a comfy chair, and enjoy with lunch.
